Netherlands visa form pakistan

If you live in Pakistan and want to apply for a short-term visa for the Netherlands, learn about the rules and how to apply. If the EU travel ban has been lifted for residents of your country, you can apply for all categories of visas. If the EU travel ban has not been lifted for your country's residents, you can apply for a visa only if you fall under the exclusion category. Check the Q&A page A Travel restriction for the Netherlands to see for which EU countries the travel ban has been lifted and what are the exemption categories. You cannot apply if the embassy/consulate general or external service provider is not open for service. Please check if you can make an appointment through the meeting system. Are there no available dates? Then it is not yet possible to apply. Coronavirus: Visa extension cannot be extended. Even if due to circumstances the visa expired unused. You will have to apply for a new visa. What do I need to do? You must submit a passport or other travel document issued within the last 10 years. This should have at least 2 blank pages and be valid for at least another 3 months after the date you intend to leave the Schengen area. A completed and signed visa application form is required. Every person traveling with you on your travel document must submit their own visa form. Forms for children under the age of 18 must be signed by a parent or guardian. If you are at least 18 years old and travel without one or both of your parents or guardians, ask them to sign a consent form. Border guards may ask to see this form when you arrive in the Netherlands. The photo you submit with your application must meet the Dutch requirements for passport photos. When you submit an application, your fingerprints will be taken. They will remain valid for 59 months. Some applicants, such as children under the age of 12, do not have to have their fingerprints. Have you provided biometric data (fingerprints and photos) in the past 59 months prior to the current application? Then you can choose to have someone else submit your application to you. You don't need to appear in person. This also applies if you have had fingerprints made in the past 59 months to obtain a visa application filed through another Schengen member state. Please note that if you see that your fingerprints are not in the system during your assessment, you will have to come and submit them. In addition, you can always be invited for an interview if your application gives grounds for this. How much does a visa cost? When you sew a visa application at the Embassy or Consulate of the Netherlands, you must pay the fee. You can find a fee on the fee page. If you apply through an external service provider, such as a visa agency, you will have to pay an additional fee The visa fee must be reserved for applicants belonging to one of the following categories: children under 6 years old; years; students, postgraduates and accompanying teachers who carry out stays for the purpose of studying or studying; researchers traveling for scientific research or participation in a scientific seminar or conference*; representatives of non-profit organizations aged 25 and over participate in seminars, conferences, sports, cultural or educational events organized by non-profit organizations. *as defined in paragraph (2) of Article 3 of Directive (ES) 2016/801 of the European Parliament and the Council (1) How long will it take? The earliest you can apply 6 months before you intend to travel. Sailors can apply for 9 months before the estimated date of travel. You must submit an application no later than 15 working days. In most cases, you will be informed within 15 calendar days whether your application has been successful. However, sometimes it can take up to 45 days, for example, if additional documents are required. How will my application be evaluated? Some Schengen member states want to share information about visa applicants. This check (known as consultation) is mandatory for certain nationalities and can take up to 7 days. Your application will also be verified in the Schengen Information System (SIS II). In addition, your application data will be verified and stored in visa information system (VIS). The Ministry of Foreign Affairs uses information-supported solutions to make better, quick decisions on visa applications. For more information about how your data will be processed, see the privacy statement. Applying for a visa in this country or region How to apply for a Schengen visa in Pakistan?
